LIBRARIES

Biblioteca Apostolica Vaticana (Vatican Apostolic Library): Over the centuries, the Papal Library was several times dispersed and reconstructed; the present library was founded by Pope Nicholas V about the middle of the 15th century; at his death the Library contained 1,209 codices (414 Greek, 795 Latin); at the present time it contains some 60,000 MSS., 100,000 engravings, 5,000 incunabula, and 900,000 other volumes; among famous collections which have helped to build up the Library are those of the Dukes of Urbino (1657), of Queen Christina of Sweden (1690), of the Florentine Marquis Capponi (1745), of Barberini (1902), of Chigi (1923), and the Borghese collection, which included many items housed in the Papal Library at Avignon; the Sistine Chapel collection is of the greatest importance to historians of music; among the many rare and precious MSS. in the Library are a Greek Bible of the 4th century, Vergils of the 4th and 6th centuries, a 4th-5th-century palimpsest of Cicero's Republic, autographs of St. Thomas Aquinas, Tasso, Petrarch, Boccaccio, Poliziano, Michaelangelo, and Luther; Cardinal Protector EUGENE TISSERANT; Prefect Fr.
